

Figure 10.2: Illustration of a mixture of 3 Gaussians in a two-dimensional space showing (a) contours representing one standard deviation for each of the mixture components, (b) the marginal probability density of the mixture distribution, and (c) a sample of 500 points drawn from the marginal distribution.